WOMEN AGAINST GUN VIOLENCE REACTION TO LATEST INCIDENT OF GUN SHOOTING IN GARDENA HIGH SCHOOL

LOS ANGELES, CA (January 18, 2011)

In response to today's tragic shooting at Gardena High School in Gardena, CA, in which two students were shot in a class room by a single bullet that discharged from a gun in a student's book bag, Katherine Hennigan, Chair of Los Angeles-based Women Against Gun Violence comments:

"It is appalling that just ten days after the tragic mass shooting that transpired the morning of January 8th in Tucson, Arizona, we have to witness another incident which puts young lives in jeopardy," said Hennigan. "Our thoughts and prayers go out to the students and their families for a complete recovery. Women Against Gun Violence is committed to stopping the increasing carnage caused by gun violence."

The Executive Director of WAGV, Katherine Hennigan, is available for interviews about the recent shootings & what WAGV is doing to further its' mission.
